

2009 Percent of Services

The emphasis at Davidson Homes is on Residential Programs and Day Programs. For 2009 the Residential Service was the major service provided by Davidson Homes and Day Support was the second most significant service. This two services contributed to approximately 76 % of the total services provided. Other service account for 24 % of the services provided by Davidson Homes. These services, support the Residential Program and provide other benefits to persons served.